Dallas Good Kid: Lakehill Prep junior Sarah Baker

12:00 AM CST on Sunday, January 10, 2010

Sarah Baker

Nicknames: Baykah Bakes, Sarita la Bonita

I live in: Dallas

Community and school activities: Student Council, junior class vice president, National Honor Society, the Pan American Student Forum of Texas, Sisteens, basketball, softball, volleyball, Student Ambassadors, Girl Scouts, participating in For the Love of the Lake cleanup at White Rock Lake, and volunteering at the Wilkinson Center and Austin Street Shelter

School and grade: Lakehill Preparatory School junior

My hobbies are: playing basketball, watching movies, playing games with my family, wakeboarding and water-skiing at our lakehouse, playing sand volleyball with my dad on the beach

My favorite school subject is: AP Biology

The two people I'd most like to meet are: Muhammad Yunus and Toni Morrison

When I finish school I plan to: take a trip to Italy

The best books I ever read were: Life of Pi by Yann Martel, So B. It by Sarah Weeks, A Separate Peace by John Knowles, Catcher in the Rye by J.D. Salinger, and Mrs. Piggle Wiggle by Betty MacDonald

The biggest honor I ever received was: Freshman of the Year for my district in basketball

I wish I knew how to: read minds, fly and just be a superhero overall

My worst habit is: not being able to stay on my feet

My favorite restaurant is: Buca di Beppo

My hero is: Muhammad Yunus

The three words people use to describe me are: crazy, hardworking and reliable

I get inspiration from: hearing about people that change the world

The best advice I ever received was: You miss 100 percent of the shots you never take.

I'm happiest when: I am relaxing at home or hanging out with my friends
