Missed the first one?

Well, Lakehill Preparatory School will host a second Environmental Summit, a free speaker series April 28 at the LEED silver certified Alice and Erle Nye Family Environmental Science Center at Lakehill's Roger L. Perry Campus, 7401 Ferguson Road.

Called "Green Living," the event co-sponsored by Crosby Catering & Coffee will begin at 8:30 a.m. with a breakfast social and green-product exhibit, followed by the program at 9 a.m. and more networking. The event is free, but reservations are required. E-mail Gigi Ekstrom or call her at 214-826-2931.

Lakehill photo: Anna Clark speaks to the crowd at the first Environmental Summit, which drew over 100 attendees.

Go to the jump for more on the speakers.

Carol Henry, environmental pioneer and buyer for Green Living in Lakewood, will speak on the changes individuals can make in their own consuming habits.

Bruce Bagelman, founder and owner of Green Spot Market & Fuels, will speak on "The Environment, Sustainability and You."

Anna Clark, president of Earth People and speaker at the first Environmental Summit event, will be on hand to sign her new book, Green, American Style.
