Maia Heard, Lakehill Preparatory

City, grade and college plans: Oak Cliff, senior. I plan to continue my education in college with a major in either business or journalism

Community and school activities: Student Council – historian; Sisteens (Girls Service Organization); National Honor Society; Pan American Student Forum – vice president; Lakehill Student Ambassadors – spirit committee chair; Mu Alpha Theta; Rho Kappa; varsity volleyball team – captain; varsity basketball team – captain; varsity softball team; varsity track team

My hobbies are: playing sports and watching movies

The three words people use to describe me are: funny; athletic; vivacious

I'm most proud of: being accepted to the Youth Summit for U.S. House Rep. Eddie Bernice Johnson

The best books I ever read were: the series of Sally Lockhart books by Philip Pullman: "The Ruby in the Smoke," "The Shadow in the North," "The Tiger in the Well" and "The Tin Princess"

My favorite musical artist is: Florence and the Machine

The biggest honors I ever received were: the TAPPS Academic All-State Award and the Bronze President's Volunteer Service Award

I wish I knew how to: properly crack someone's back; it fascinates me how chiropractors work!

The best advice I ever received was: "You are somewhere in the future and you look much better than you look right now."

Nobody knows I: like to cook and bake!

My hero is: My mother – she amazes me by what she can do with so little. She never stops or gives up.

If I could travel anywhere, I would go to: Bora Bora
