

¡CASCARONES!

What are Cascarones?

Cascarones are handmade confetti-filled eggs that are traditional at Easter and Fiesta in the Spanish-speaking world. These eggs are traditionally cracked over people’s heads for fun, but they can also be used for decoration. Sometimes, messages are included in the eggs so when the egg is cracked the recipient gets a nice Easter or Fiesta surprise.

Who is Selling them and why are they selling them?
