Position Title: Third Grade ELA/Social Studies Teacher

Responsibilities:

- Deliver a rigorous English Language Arts and Social Studies curriculum within an interactive learning environment to provide exceptional results for all students.
- Create and implement grade-level appropriate lesson plans as the sole ELA/Social Studies teacher in a departmentalized setting, leading lessons to both third grade homerooms.
- Encourage a love of reading and writing through differentiated student instruction that builds student confidence while providing the “just right” level of challenge to promote student growth.
- Plan and implement interdisciplinary studies between the ELA and Social Studies curricula as well as in partnership with the Math and Science teacher.
- Lead a classroom environment that promotes academic, as well as social-emotional, wellbeing.
- Monitor student progress and assist students in accomplishing established learning objectives.
- Provide timely feedback to students and their parents on coursework and progress.
- Post all assignments, grades and classroom communication through the appropriate channels and proactively make phone calls home and/or send emails to parents.
- Other duties as assigned.

Qualifications:

- Five or more years’ experience as a full-time classroom teacher.
- Bachelor’s degree in education or related field. Masters degree holders will be given preference.
- Experience teaching within the Lucy Calkins’ Units of Study and/or the Fountas and Pinnell Readers and Writers Workshop models, and providing explicit instruction in phonics.
- Ability or willingness to collect, interpret, and utilize student data to provide targeted instruction and progress monitoring through programs such as RAZ Plus, IXL, Accelerated Reader, Reading Counts, iReady, or similar.
- Possesses a comprehensive understanding of best practices for elementary child education.

- Demonstrate a passion for guiding student learning and success.
- Experience working with students from diverse backgrounds.
- Effective verbal and written communication
- Be proficient in the tools available through Microsoft Office and/or Google Suite.
- Must be flexible and adaptable in meeting the needs of the children and the program.
